Can You Tell Which One Of These Bicycles Is A Bait Bike?

In an effort to stop bicycle theft from occurring on the campus of SIU, the Department of Public Safety started the Bait Bike program in 2016. Officers place and monitor “bait bikes” around campus. These bikes are connected to the department via technology that is monitored at all times. Those caught taking a bicycle that does not belong to them may face criminal prosecution and be held accountable.

Follow these tips to avoid becoming a victim of Bike Theft:

- Register your bike
- Get a lock (or two)
- Use a U or D-type bike lock
- Do not use cable locks
- Lock your bike to bike rack

Meet An Officer

SEPTEMBER IS NATIONAL SUICIDE PREVENTION MONTH

Understanding the issues concerning suicide and mental health is an important way to take part in suicide prevention, help others in crisis, and change the conversation around suicide. Suicide is not inevitable for anyone. Research shows people who are having thoughts of suicide feel relief when someone asks after them in a caring way. Findings suggest acknowledging and talking about suicide may reduce suicidal ideation. By starting the conversation, providing support, and directing help to those who need it, we can prevent suicides and save lives. Evidence shows that providing support services, talking about suicide, reducing access to means of self-harm, and following up with those closest to us are just some of the actions we can all take to help others.

Know the Warning Signs

Some warning signs may help you determine if someone close to you is at risk for suicide, especially if the behavior is new, has increased, or seems related to a painful event, loss, or change. If you or someone you know exhibits any of these, seek help by calling the Department of Public Safety, Saluki Cares, the Clinical Center, or the National Suicide Prevention lifeline.

- Talking about wanting to die or to kill themselves
- Looking for a way to kill themselves, like searching online or buying a gun
- Talking about feeling hopeless or having no reason to live
- Talking about feeling trapped or in unbearable pain
- Acting anxious or agitated; behaving recklessly
- Showing rage or talking about getting revenge
- Talking about being a burden to others
- Increasing the use of alcohol or drugs
- Sleeping too little or too much
- Withdrawing or isolating themselves
- Extreme mood swings

#BeThe1To

#BeThe1To is the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline’s message for National Suicide Prevention Month and beyond, which helps spread the word about actions that all can take to prevent suicide. The Lifeline network and its partners are working to change the conversation from suicide to suicide prevention, to actions that can promote healing, help and give hope.
